Examples of large donations

Reddingshonden RHWW: €10,000

Foundation Reddingshonden RHWW ('Rescue dogs') is a non-profit organisation that trains rescue-dogs and their handlers to assist in search and rescue operations alongside the police, fire brigade, and army. The dogs are used to search for people who may be trapped or lost due to accidents or natural disasters. Reddingshonden RHWW requested a donation to fix their bus, as it had been damaged in a car accident. The bus functions as the primary means of transport for the organisation and is essential to their efforts.

Brandwondencentrum Maasstad: €10,000

Research has shown that distractions help children diminish and manage pain when they have severe burns and need to change bandages. Brandwondencentrum Maasstad came up with the idea to create bandage change spaces where these children can find positive distractions in colourful rooms, with music. The foundation needs money for the design of these spaces at Brandwondencentrum Maasstad.
